Close Reading Assignment ~ "One of the most talked about shifts in the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) is the need to engage students in 'close reading' of complex texts. Essentially close reading means reading to uncover layers of meaning that lead to deep comprehension. Often, in order to do this, you need to read a text several times in order to analyze it and gain a deeper understanding ...

Encourage students to speak and write their answers without using the sentence frames/stems. Allow students to be the first to share their ideas or rephrase their classmates' contributions to class discussions. Have students create and display a word/phrase bank with helpful terms from the lesson for reference purposes, with images if applicable.
